CAN YOU ASSIST WITH THE LAST MOVEMENTS OF BONNIE?

Bonnie is about 5'03" and of very slim build. She has blue eyes and dark brown shoulder length straight hair. This is often worn tied back in a ponytail. Bonnie has an east London accent. She is a well-known individual who lived in Canning Town but who frequented Commercial Street E1 on an almost daily basis.

Police fear for the safety of Bonnie, she was last seen on Monday 17th September 2007 when she left a friend's address in the evening and went to Commercial Street. She is known to have spent the night of Monday 17th still in the Commercial Street area.

It is now understood that on Tuesday 18th September Bonnie left a friend's address at lunchtime, and went out into Commercial Street. She has not been seen since.

It is possible that Bonnie accompanied by a man, took a Black Taxi in the late afternoon or early evening of Tuesday 18th September from the Commercial Street area of Whitechapel. They may have travelled to the vicinity of Rotherithe Tube Station via the Rotherithe Tunnel or over Tower Bridge. If you were working in the area of Commercial Street E1 on or about Tuesday 18th September 2007 and remember collecting a white female matching Bonnie's description, possibly accompanied by a white male, please contact the Police Incident Room.

Any information will be treated in the strictest confidence.
