

LIVERYMAN'S PANCAKE RACE

This year's annual inter livery Pancake Race took place in The Guildhall yard, on a bright sunny day. The race is competitive and sadly due to a gust of wind The Worshipful Company of Hackney Carriage Drivers' team did not win any races. John Dixon was leading the Liveryman's race and was within 5 yards of the finish line when the gust of wind removed his pancake from his pan!

Past Master Geoff Richards took part in the Masters Race, Jacquie Quaile in the Ladies Race, John Dixon in the Liveryman's Race and Carlos Oliveira in the Mad Hatters Race. All the hats worn by the competitors have to reflect the current Lord Mayor's chosen charity. This year it's ORBIS world sight charity. Carlos' hat was a bowler covered as a globe with glasses on the brim.

Jim Rainbird was on hand to encourage the team and take the photographs. He said: "Jacquie Quaile was penalised for a tossing penalty (no double entendres please!)but she was re-instated for the semi final after a stewards enquiry and a firm word from Carlos. Everyone enjoyed the event and this year it was a lovely sunny morning as well, unlike last year when it was wet and slippery."
