ONE STRIKE AND YOU'RE OUT

Any licensed taxi or private hire driver convicted of touting in a Court of Law on or after 1 August 2008 will have his or her driver's licence revoked.

Drivers who have their licences revoked under these circumstances may not be considered for a fresh licence before the expiry of 12 months from the date of revocation.

Boris Johnson promised to crack down on illegal touting when he recently went out onto the streets of London to see the extent of the problem, accompanied by Grant Davis, Chairman of the London Cab Drivers' Club, and Yvonne Trayner, Chief Executive of the Rape and sexual abuse support centre in Croydon problem. He said: "There are taxi touts on the streets of the capital every night. I was saddened to see these touts brazenly flouting their wares and I have asked my team to press ahead with our plans to tackle these tyrants."
