PEDICAB BAYS IN WEST END

Martin Low, Director of Transportation, Westminster City Council, has told Taxi Globe: "The long term solution is either a total ban on pedicabs or a licensing and enforcement regime, which will enable the Council and Transport for London to stop the problem of rogue operators getting onto our streets in the first place."

He also states that operators and riders who adhere to a Voluntary Code of Practise could be rewarded. "I am currently looking at creating pedicab bays for responsible operators in the West End," he said.
