

LET'S GO WITH THE CHILDREN

No matter where you choose to spend your holidays, there are plenty of places to visit and things to do across the country which are free for children and in many cases, for adults too! Don't let the credit crunch stop you and your family enjoying yourselves this summer. You don't have to stick to the seaside either, head inland to the Midlands, Yorkshire, Wiltshire or Herefordshire for example, and you'll find a wealth of beautiful countryside and little known free and affordable attractions. There are literally hundreds of ways to be thrifty without compromising on fun, by taking some time to research and learn about the many attractions England has to offer.

Discover hidden gems and unusual places to visit in your local area or holiday destination with the 'Let's Go with the Children' guide books. They are packed with detailed information on fun, educational and historical things to do across 14 regions of England, helping you keep the kids amused whatever the weather and whatever the budget. Perfect for the car or the handbag, these superb guide books have a handy index on free places to go, and include exclusive money saving offers from leading Theatre, Restaurant, Kids Camp, Attractions, Health Club and Clothing brands to the value of over £100.

For any of your taxi passengers in London with children, the book is full of useful information. Taxi Globe have teamed up with 'Let's Go with the Children', to bring you a selection of the free places to visit listed in their guide books. The books are available in all major supermarkets, WH Smith and Waterstones. Find out more at www.letsgowiththechildren.co.uk
