

WIN A LUNCH OR DINNER FOR TWO AT THE RESTAURANT, THE CAVENDISH HOTEL

One lucky reader can enjoy a fantastic three-course lunch or dinner for two people with a bottle of house wine.

Set in an enviable location on historical Jermyn Street, The Restaurant at The Cavendish Hotel has an elevated dining room, which offers views over some of the oldest boutiques in London. The menu of modern British cuisine, created by the Executive Chef David Britton, offers seasonal and regionally sourced ingredients wherever possible. Awarded an AA Rosette in January 2008, the restaurant's monthly changing menu marries traditional favourites with more contemporary dishes

This elegant 80-seat restaurant is light and airy with large windows running along two walls. Luxurious cream velvet chairs, dark wood tables, and heavy taupe and chocolate brown linen curtains, complement sophisticated touches such as the linen napkins and orchids on every table. Suede banquet seating in the centre of the restaurant and two large square crimson paintings create focal points within the décor.

Excellent value set lunch and pre-theatre menus are available alongside an extensive à la carte menu. The set lunch is available from Monday to Friday from Noon until 2.30pm, priced at £14.95 for two courses and £19.95 for three courses. There is also a two course pre-theatre menu available daily from 5.30pm until 6.30pm, priced at only £14.95. The à la carte dinner menu is served daily from 5.30pm with last orders at 10.30pm.

Pre and post dinner cocktails can be enjoyed in the sophisticated surrounds of The Lounge or the chic Lobby bar. For late night drinks, The Lobby bar, which features high-backed leather couches and modern art, is open Sunday to Thursday until 12.30pm, with a late license until 2am at the weekends.
