

WIN A DINNER FOR TWO IN THE CHARMING BISTRO ONE NINETY AT THE GORE HOTEL

One lucky reader has the chance to win an amazing three-course dinner for two, plus a bottle of house wine at Bistro One Ninety, 190 Queen's Gate, Kensington. It received great critical acclaim when it was opened by Anthony Worrall Thompson in the early 90's. Under its new ownership and Head Chef, Taher Jibet, Bistro One Ninety is seeking to return to its heyday.

Using his restaurant experience from Spain and Morocco, Taher's menu at Bistro One Ninety features modern British dishes with worldwide influences. Taher's signature dish is Hampshire pork fillet stuffed with apricots and Indian spices with coconut risotto and caramelised bananas. Throughout the menu, Taher has focused on creating excellent quality cuisine using worldly ingredients, which will appeal to guests' individual tastes.

The 48 seat bistro opens at 7.00am each morning and is a buzzing location for brunch. Open throughout the day, guests can arrive at Bistro One Ninety until 11.30pm, where they can enjoy a relaxed dinner until 1.00am, every day of the week. Located close to the Royal Albert Hall, guests can indulge in pre and post theatre menus which include a selection of three choices of starters, mains and desserts. Priced at £21.95 for two courses and £23.95 for three courses, the menu is available from 5.00pm until 7.00pm and again from 10.00pm until 11.30pm.

For pre-dinner cocktails, The Gore Hotel's sumptuous Bar 190 has an atmosphere of a private members' club. The candlelit, Art Deco mahogany-paneled bar attracts a mix of fascinating people, and is especially popular with those from the film, fashion and music industries.
