

PITCH UP AT ANISE

The City's Devonshire Square has gone a fairway to ensure its putt on the map by hosting an 18 holes mini golf course. Players can raise a glass at the 19th hole, courtesy of drinking destination, Anise, or celebrate with a meal at adjacent Indian restaurant, Cinnamon Kitchen.

The covered courtyard of Devonshire Square, within easy reach of Liverpool Street Station, is the perfect pitch for a mini golf course. Providing one of the most popular pastimes come rain or shine, from just £5 a game, this new addition to the Square Mile is sure to score highly.

With the course open Monday to Friday, 10 am to 10 pm, golf pros and novices can savour a pre-game spice-infused breakfast, take a well-deserved lunch or tee-up before a decadent dinner of Indian delights at the Cinnamon

Kitchen. However, for those seeking just a little light refreshment, the 19th hole bar offers beer, rosé and mojitos. To book game contact Cinnamon Kitchen Events on 020 7397 9612 or email Toby Hartley at toby@moneypenneyevents.com
