

LUGGAGE STRAPS HELP YOU FIND YOUR SUITCASE

When you cannot see your suitcase on the airport carousel, you might blame the luggage makers who turn out so many pieces of luggage mostly of the same colour (black!). Mostly the same shape, and with the same look. By the time the cases come tumbling on to the carousel there is very little to choose between them and costly and frustrating mistakes can be made by picking up the wrong suitcase.

Once such a 'holiday nightmare' occurs, it's up to you to pick up the pieces and locate your precious stuff. Before you depart, you could use some method of identity for your case, such as putting a piece of ribbon somewhere on the case. Maybe you could chalk something (messy). Or you could study your suitcase in minute detail so that you will recognise it among hundreds of others... Or better still, you could obtain a sturdy lockable strap that secures your case from accidents and displays your name or details in bold white lettering all round the case. Travel luggage accessory specialist website LuggageStrapsDirect.com can supply the straps at just £9.95 for one personalised strap, or two straps same or different names for a discounted £17.95 inclusive of p&p.

These rigid straps come in black or red background or the elasticised straps, more suitable for soft top luggage or sports equipment and have a Fluorescent orange or blue background. The name or details are permanently woven into the straps in bold white lettering. They are all fully adjustable and can accommodate cases up to 70 inches circumference.

You can order the straps on-line at www.luggagestrapsdirect.com or by mail order at:

Permark Products, Permark House, 4 Lavender Gardens, Harrow Weald HA36DD. Please make cheques payable to Permark.
