

WIN AFTERNOON TEA FOR TWO AT THE PORTRAIT RESTAURANT

At the very top of the National Portrait Gallery off Trafalgar Square, The Portrait Restaurant boasts one of the most remarkable and spectacular views in London. Recently refurbished, the modern interior provides a light open space where guests can enjoy the traditional afternoon tea whilst looking out over the roof tops of London. The Portrait Restaurant Afternoon Tea menu offers a wide range of specialty teas, delicious sandwiches and homemade cakes, biscuits and scones. Swedish Head Chef Katarina Todosijevic is one of Fay Machler's Top 5 female chefs. Katarina's creations consist of all the classics of an English afternoon tea, plus other choices including Keens cheddar cheese scones and for sweet tooth diners, indulgent homemade chocolate brownies or a selection of homemade cakes which include carrot & orange as one of the most popular choices.

For something special, opt for the 'Pink Fizz Tea' with a glass of Rosé Prosecco, smoked salmon sandwiches, lemon meringue pot, raspberry & almond slice to name a few items that are part of the package for only £18. Enjoy all of these delights whilst taking in the views of Nelson's Column, Whitehall and Westminster.

Visitors can also enjoy a leisurely drink at the new bar which offers an extensive selection of Gin cocktails and sparkling cocktails such as the Portrait Bellini (Lychee liqueur, Pomegranate juice and Jeio Prosecco). The wine list includes a selection of biodynamic, organic and unusual varieties. An a la carte lunch is served on Monday to Friday from 11.45 - 15.00, afternoon tea is available on Monday to Sunday from 15.15 - 17.00, a brunch menu is served a brunch menu on Saturday and Sunday from 11.30 - 15.00 and The Portrait Restaurant serves a pre-theatre menu on Thursday and Friday evening from 17.30 - 18.30.
