

WIN DINNER FOR TWO AT MANGO TREE

Horns beeping, horrendous traffic, the unpredictable British weather and moving aside for crazy cyclists, are all the joys of being a London taxi driver - or maybe not! To show you some appreciation, Mango Tree, the fine-dining Thai restaurant in Belgravia, is giving readers the chance to win a delicious meal for two, to enjoy some time off the roads and indulge in the finest Thai cuisine.

Fantastically located in Belgravia, just behind Buckingham Palace, guests are guaranteed to have a truly delightful Thai experience. Inside diners can enjoy a luxurious and contemporary setting, exceptional service and the finest ingredients that executive chef Mark Read uses to create an exciting and innovative Thai menu that has something to be enjoyed by everyone.

Guests can choose from an extensive a la carte menu alongside a fantastic selection of wines, spirits, cocktails and beers to ensure a delicious lunch or dinner. Favourites include: Tom Yum Gai - the famous hot and sour chicken soup with oyster mushrooms; Poo Nim Yum Mamuang - tempura of soft shell crab with mango and sweet chilli sauce; and Moo Nam Pueng - slow roasted pork belly served with spicy red cabbage and orange chilli sauce.

Calling curry fans, Mango Tree serves a sensational selection that is sure to get you hot under the collar. Choose from delights such as Panang Gae - Panang curry with lamb shank or Choo Chee Goong Mung Korn - grilled tiger prawns with sautéed greens and dry red curry sauce. If a smoking grill is more 'up your street,' offerings include Pla Pow Lui Meung - Char-grilled swordfish steak with a garlic, chilli crust on a bed of wok fried green and cream sauce and Gai Yang - roasted corn fed poussin marinated in coconut milk, lemongrass, galangal, turmeric and lime leaf.
