NOTICE

It has been reported that HALT have purported to terminate their agreement with Journeypay Limited. This purported termination is disputed by Journeypay Limited who have instructed lawyers in this regard and in respect of potential defamation claims.

The dispute between HALT and Journeypay does not in any way affect the ability of drivers to use the Journeypay system. It has been suggested, incorrectly, that continuing to use the Journeypay system puts drivers 'at risk' as to whether they will receive money earned through the Journeypay system. This is false and the contracts between the drivers and Journeypay are in no way affected by the dispute with HALT. There is no need for any driver - whether contracted independently or after an introduction by HALT to terminate their contract with Journeypay.
