

WIN A MEAL FOR 2 AT AWANA

How does the thought of being transported off the streets of London, to take a culinary journey through Malaysia sound? Well, here's your chance. Awana, the fine-dining Malaysian restaurant in Chelsea, is offering you the opportunity to win a luxurious three-course meal for two, plus a bottle of wine, to awaken you to the delights of Malaysian cuisine, some of the most exciting and vibrant dishes to come out of Asia.

Positioned on Chelsea's Sloane Avenue, Awana's contemporary restaurant and satay bar unveils the depth and diversity of Malaysian cuisine. With menus from acclaimed executive chef Mark Read, dishes include curries, soups, grills and stir-fries, all accompanied by home-baked traditional breads. Combing traditional dishes with innovative modern interpretations, diners can start with delicious creations such as kepek ayam goring - deep fried spicy chicken wings served with vinaigrette chilli; popiah sayur goring - mixed asian vegetable spring rolls served with sweet chilli sauce or ketam lembut lada hitam - peppered soft shell crab served with stir fried greens in chilli jam.

For all curry enthusiasts, there is a fantastic selection that will inject you with a fabulous spice-infused kick. Offerings include kambing betis - cumin spiced curried lamb shank with pumpkin, sweet potato and lemongrass, and kari udang - fresh tiger prawn tail curry with coconut, pineapple, tomato and tamarind served in a pineapple boat. Or if you prefer a grill, choices include: itik panggan - grilled duck breast marinated in lime leaves, served with sweet black pepper sauce, and ikan bakar - whole seabass baked with herbs, lemongrass, garlic and chilli paste served with lime and seafood sauce.
