

SPRING COURT DINNER AT SADDLERS' HALL

Hugh Sumner, ODA, Director of Transport, was guest speaker at the recent Worshipful Company of Hackney Carriage Drivers' Spring Court Dinner. Hugh led on Transport for London's 2012 Games successful bid in 2003, he and his team are accountable for all transportation to meet the needs of all Olympic and Paralympic client groups during the 60 days of the Games.

The dinner, held at Saddlers' Hall in Gutter Lane, was attended by over 100 guests including several Livery Company Masters associated with the Hackney Carriage Drivers. The Saddlers' Hall is a magnificent mansion house, built in classical style and is resplendent with period furniture, paintings and remarkable treasures.

After the usual meeting held before a dinner of Master, Wardens and the COA (Court of Assistants), Master Michael Davies admitted five new members to the Freedom of the Company. The new freemen were Mr Anthony Bishop, Mrs Christina Docherty, Mr Daniel Fosker, Mr Howard Kaye and Mr Robert Woodford and they joined other guests for the dinner afterwards.

The Company has recently formed an association with 20 Transport Squadron RLC and the first military award recipient, Private Andrew McNab was presented with an award for professional excellence during the Master's address to the Company.

Following an excellent meal with fine wines guests participated in a loving cup ceremony and then relaxed to enjoy a musical interlude by a very talented young lady harpist.

For more details about the Company please contact The Clerk, Mary Whitworth, who will be happy to answer any questions you may have. You can telephone her on 01494 765922 or email clerk@chcd.fsnet.co.uk
